Monroeville doctor to head physician organization

(HARRISBURG, PA. Feb. 28, 2020) Tracey Conti, MD, a Monroeville family physician, has been named the 74th president of the Pennsylvania Academy of Family Physicians (PAFP). Conti will be installed as president at a ceremony at the PAFP's Annual Business Meeting at the Hotel Hershey in Hershey, 12:25 p.m. on Friday, March 6, as part of the PAFP's Hershey CME Conference.

Conti began her medical career at the Temple University School of Medicine in Philadelphia. She completed her residency training in family medicine at the University of Maryland School of Medicine in Baltimore, where she served as chief resident.

Conti is the Program Director of the Family Medicine Residency Program at UPMC McKeesport. She has held appointments at Howard University, the University of Maryland, and the University of Pittsburgh. She has held various positions with the PAFP, including as a member of the Board of Directors and on the Resident and Student Committee.

Conti enjoys singing, reading, crafts and watching sports, especially soccer and football. She is married to Rev Dr. Christopher T. Conti who is an emergency medicine physician and pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church in Rankin. They are the proud parents of seven children: Christopher Jr., Nicholas, Matthew, Zachary, Jacob, Benjamin and Sarah.

The Pennsylvania Academy of Family Physicians and its Foundation supports its members (including nearly 80 percent of Pennsylvania family physicians) through advocacy and education to ensure physician-coordinated, personalized, and comprehensive quality health care for every Pennsylvanian. The Academy and its Foundation are the leading influential resource among family physicians and physicians in training in Pennsylvania; the primary voice on health care issues with state legislative and administrative branches of government, media and professional health organizations; and the leader on health care issues in the community.
